

El Status

Contemporary Puerto Rican art in times of political and cultural identity discussions and the unresolved status problem

Diploma Thesis

by Lisa Jans-Ladner

(c) Lisa Jans-Ladner

Master of Advanced Studies in Cultural and Gender Studies, 2004-2006

School of Art and Design Zurich, HGKZ

Institute of Cultural Studies in Art, Media and Design, <http://culturalgenderstudies.hgkz.ch>

Lisa Jans-Ladner

EI Status

Contemporary Puerto Rican art in times of political and cultural identity discussions and the unresolved status problem

Zurich, June 1, 2006

Diploma thesis

Mentor: Sigrid Adorf
 PD Dr. Pietro Morandi

Cooperation: Museo de Arte Contemporáneo
 María Emilia Somoza (director)
 Santurce, San Juan, Puerto Rico

Daros-Latinamerica AG
Regina Vogel (librarian)
Zurich, Switzerland

and many more

Master of Advanced Studies in Cultural and Gender Studies, 2004-2006

School of Art and Design Zurich, HGKZ

Institute of Cultural Studies in Art, Media and Design, <http://culturalgenderstudies.hgkz.ch>

INDEX	page
Preliminary remarks	1
Preface	2
More than an island: Puerto Rico	2
Art „celebrating“ the invasion	4
„Domineichon“ or: What does „Fucó“ has to do with Puerto Rico?	6
Part I – NATION AND CULTURE	7
The cultural nation of Puerto Rico	7
Language at the center of identity discussions	8
A political dispute: Medium of teaching and national language	11
The Diaspora’s role in the language conflict	14
“White” on the island, “black” on the mainland	16
Hispanic, Latino and the awareness of being „other”	17
Boricuas gain ground	19
The nationalism discourse in a blind alley	20
Looking back on the history of the island’s nationalism	22
Uncle Sam’s militarily and economic interests	25
Unresolved status question	31
Part II – ART	35
Island of many arts	35
With the speed of a hurricane through Puerto Rico’s art history	35
From rock painting to the World Wide Web	37
On the art of politics and the political arts	40
„None of the Above“ – neo-conceptualism and the avant-garde	41
Revolution and consent	43
Part III – ARTISTS and the ART MARKET	45
Artists ponder	45
Peculiarities of the market for Puerto Rican art	54
Epilog	57
Acknowledgement	60
Appendix	61
Artists’ biographies	61
Bibliography	69
Medial Project
www.el-status.com	73